From our Pastoral Associate

Wow, Christmas and holidays have come and gone, we have had just a few weeks of the 'time of order' – or 'Ordinary time' and suddenly, Ash Wednesday has arrived and we are into Lent again. The last day of Summer is here too, and next week we will be beginning Autumn.

We could be lulled into thinking that everything is as it always was, but in our parish, this is not the case. This week the funeral of our very first Hallett Cove Parish Priest was celebrated here – Fr Tony Papps was not old – his 66th birthday would have been today (the day before his funeral). He had had health challenges for a long time – had a pace-maker fitted when he was our young 42 year-old priest.

I recall that he had an office in the School admin building and he had a little note on the pin-board; it read "Celibates need love too – hug one today!" And we did love Fr Tony, and the school staff and children appreciated having him present here with us. We send our prayers of thanks to God for him and all he was for us in our community, and we send our love and sympathy to his family.

Those who came before Fr Tony, especially Sr Catherine Vowels – who died only last year – had a vision for this parish which was very much shared by all our parishioners – back then we were attached to the Brighton Parish and very keen to become independent. The parishioners opted to build the School first (with an adaptable room for celebrating weekend Masses) so the children and families would know they belonged – to God and to this community. Next, they built the Parish House so we could (under Canon Law) become an independent parish and house our own Priest. Third, they built the lovely church we now have. They had a novel way of raising the large amount of money necessary – a progress chart showed how many 'bricks' we needed and as families committed to buy 'bricks' at $20 each (I think) we slowly raised a very large amount of money from a small community. The rest of the funds were raised by taking out loans from the Catholic Church Endowment Society – that loan we may be able to finally pay off later this year!

That fledgling community really took personal responsibility for providing for their children and grandchildren and all who would come to live and learn and worship here, and now it's our turn!

Apart from the capital commitments we have – servicing the loan, running and maintaining our buildings and grounds etc., we have our recurrent costs – power, water, rates, maintenance, supplies etc. And then we really need people to help the parish to function. We are very much blessed to have many willing volunteers and helpers including our Deacon Tim, Parish Pastoral Councillors, Finance Councillors, Sacristans, cleaners, ministers, etc., and the Diocese pays our priest, but in order to keep everything running smoothly, communication happening and our Sacramental programs, etc, running, we do need our amazing Parish Secretary Pat, who is employed by us for just one day a week (although she does huge amounts in her own time), Jenny who does our accounts ½ day per week and a Pastoral Associate (currently Julie and Marion are paid for a combined 15 hours per week) and these salaries come from our recurrent funding – Planned Giving and Collections. The School helps by employing our Youth Worker and Brighton Parish have always generously supported us with an annual substantial contribution BUT.... our planned giving has fallen to a level where we are struggling to grow.

Times have changed – no longer can we simply attend Mass and go on our way; we all need to share in the ministry of BEING the Body of Christ for each other, for our community and for the world. This includes examining our commitment and challenging ourselves to give from our substance and not just from our excess. Committing to becoming more involved – 'buying bricks' (metaphorically) to build the St Martin de Porres Parish of the present and future. This year we have 4 activities planned, two social and two fundraising, plus our First Sunday of the Month morning teas after 9:15am Mass. Please plan to participate – for our sake, for your sake and for God's sake.

God bless you all.

Hallett Cove Vinnies Christmas Hampers

The Hallett Cove Vinnies group sincerely thank everyone that supported us through donations of cash, gift cards, food & toys for our Christmas Hampers. We received tremendous support from our Parishioners, St Martin de Porres School, Hallett Cove Community Children's Centre and the Knights of the Southern Cross.

As a result we were able to assist 28 Adults & 26 Children with food, gift vouchers & toys to the value of $65 per person. Some of the people we visited were so thankful they became emotional and shed a few tears. They also wish to pass on their sincere thanks.

Vinnies Bushfire Appeal

So far, nationally the Vinnies Bushfire Appeal has raised $12.5 million to support people impacted by bushfires in NSW, Queensland, Victoria, SA and the ACT. To date, more than $2.4 million has been distributed nationally in direct cash payments with an additional $250,000 processed ready for distribution. Vinnies volunteers have also been on the ground helping people as they deal with the immediate aftermath of fires.

In South Australia, generous donors have raised more than $1.3 million and we are very grateful for this response.

We have been working closely with the SA Government State Recovery Office to assist with material donations as requested, and to act as a link between donors of products and services and those who require this type of assistance.

From this week, Vinnies SA has been given access to the SA Government Bushfire Recovery Centre in Lobethal in order to meet with those affected, and to begin processing applications for financial support. We are also involved in the recovery effort on Kangaroo Island.

OWLS

Hallett Cove Parish Prayer Day

You are invited to join us on Tuesday 10th March and 14th April

KNIGHTS BRIGHTON/MARION/HALLETT COVE/ GLENELG BRANCH

The Knights of the Southern Cross Brighton/Marion/Hallett Cove/Glenelg branch conducted a CRAZY WHIST NIGHT prior to Christmas. Over $500 was raised and the proceeds were shared by the Antioch Youth Group and the Vinnies of Hallett Cove. We thank those parishioners who attended the evening.

The Knights also donated monies to the four Vinnies conferences in our branch area for Christmas Hampers and conference funds.

We endeavour, quarterly, to support the Vinnies conferences. Last year $2600 was donated plus monies from Crazy Whist Nights.

One of the sources of our branch fund-raising is through Bottle Drives. In the past we have had great support from Hallett Cove parishioners, but sadly due to changing circumstances many of our donors have moved to Nursing homes etc.

Tony Schar (mob: 0419127491) will gladly organized a collection of your bottles.

Our Knights branch this year will continue the relationship with the Antioch Youth Group; lobby our local politicians re the Abortion and Euthanasia Bills that are before our State Parliament and support our Priests where required.

May the Lenten season bring you Peace at Easter.

Pat Hodgson
Chairman

St Martin de Porres Craft Group

Although you may not have heard much about our Craft Group lately, we are still meeting weekly on Thursday afternoons in the Church Foyer

At 1pm to around 3.30pm. Everyone is welcome for a cuppa and a chat, and, if you wish, bring along whatever project you are working on at home

We plan to have our "Soup and Winter Woollies" stall again this year and a Christmas Stall. (The Christmas stall will be a Bi-Annual event from now on)

We help out the Parish with the Healing Masses by catering for the lunch at each Healing Mass with no cost to the Parish. We provide a light lunch of sandwiches, cakes and fruit, and according to feedback, it is all well received

Through our stalls etc. we have given the Parish Funds a boost of $8,059.70 since May 2013 which for a small group of people we are proud of.

We have donated countless rugs, scarves and beanies to Moore St. Day Centre, where they are distributed to those in need and have donated knitted toys to the Flinders Medical Centre. We also have times when we do our own thing such as knitting, crochet, diamond dots, sewing and other crafts

Pop in any time, there is no obligation to come each week and at a cost of $2 it is a great fun way to spend a couple of hours

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020

During November 2019, parishioners from the parishes of Brighton, Hallett Cove and St Ann's were invited to come together to reflect on the 6 themes to be discussed at the Plenary Council meeting being held in Adelaide from the 4 -11 October this year. The 6 themes are:

Open to Conversion, Renewal and Reform
Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal
Humble, Healing and Merciful
Missionary and Evangelising
Prayerful and Eucharistic
A Joyful, Hope filled and Servant Community

Forty-five parishioners from the 3 parishes, participated in 13 different discussion groups during the 17th, 19th and 27th November 2019. Each group was asked: "to write down the 2 or 3 emerging actions that have been drawn from the discussions". These 'action' summaries have been forwarded to the Plenary Council 2020 Writing and Discernment Groups. The papers from the 6 Discernment and Writing groups are expected to be available in May. A sample of the action summaries that have been forwarded are:

- ◇ The Church to be open to the ordination of female Deacons
- ◇ The Church to be open to the ordination of married men
- ◇ Priests who have left active ministry be invited back to administer Sacraments, especially Sacraments of Anointing and Baptism
- ◇ The Third Rite of Reconciliation be reinstated in our liturgy
- ◇ Women to have equal representation in all areas of governance in the Church
- ◇ Establish on-going groups for newly baptised to meet regularly
- ◇ Family Groups be established to assist in building a sense of belonging
- ◇ People received into the church through the RCIA continue to meet regularly
- ◇ Priests should not be solely responsible for everything in the parish and for administration of the Church. Laity should be at least equally responsible at the local parish, through to the national level. (If necessary, change Canon Law).
- ◇ As Australia recruits more and more overseas priests, there should be a dual approach:
 - (a) of welcome, tolerance and acceptance of those who are here;
 - (b) continuing assimilation in our culture of Church and ordinary life on or before arrival
- ◇ Vatican II documents to be re-introduced to assist the understanding that lay people, through their baptism, have a role to play
- ◇ The Church needs to apologise for all the injustices that have occurred, to be able to move forward.
- ◇ To have a Sorry Day for the Victims of Abuse.
- ◇ When Church teachings change, homilies and information sessions be provided to take people through a process that explains the new theology/emphasis, e.g. divorce and re-marriage.
- ◇ Make good, current theology, faith formation programmes available to everyone – young and old.
- ◇ Through homilies and statements, help, reassure and calm older Catholics who are consumed with guilt because their children/grandchildren aren't attending Mass. Offer them hope in dealing with a changing society.
- ◇ Many parents struggle because their children no longer attend church. Research to be undertaken as to why people are disenchanted with the Catholic Church, especially young people.
- ◇ That our Bishops are more visible and in touch with lay people.
- ◇ More opportunities for faith formation: workshops on variety of prayer styles; information about retreats/days of reflection; scripture; books – spiritual reading
- ◇ Liturgies that reflect the cultural make-up in our parishes, e.g. Indian, Filipino, etc..
- ◇ Allow ordinary parishioners opportunities to give witness to their faith journeys.
- ◇ That the Church does not put up barriers for people who are divorced and want to participate in the Mass. Annulment is not always the correct way to allow people to participate in the Church. There should be a discernment process. You cannot void a marriage.

These statements are excerpts from the 9 submissions forwarded to the Plenary Council Discernment and Writing Groups. Copies of these submissions are available in the Church foyer, or from the Parish Office.

Child Safe Environments

Child Safe Environments Briefing for Volunteers

As you may be aware, all volunteers in our Archdiocese are mandated notifiers under the South Australian Child Protection Legislation. To ensure we hear the voices of children and have the necessary skills to identify and respond appropriately, we invite any volunteers who have not yet participated in Child Safe Environments training or an equivalent course to attend a 90 minute Volunteer Briefing session facilitated by the Archdiocesan Child Protection Unit. Please note that these briefings (or an equivalent course) are a compulsory requirement for anyone wishing to be a Eucharistic Minister.

A Volunteer Briefing will be held in the Brighton Parish on:

Wednesday 25th March, 10-11.30am in the Brighton Activity Centre

If you have attended a Child Safe Environments or RAN training within the past 3 years you do not need to attend a Volunteer Briefing.

Please note: the content of the session is not suitable for children and young people (under 18 years old) to attend so please make alternative care arrangements for your children before attending a Volunteer Briefing.

Please contact the Child Protection Unit to book into this session, either via email at childprotection@adelaide.catholic.org.au or by phone on 8210 8159

Thank you for agreeing to help us provide care and safety for our children and young people.

What is Lent?

Lent is a period of fasting, moderation, and self-denial traditionally observed by Catholics and some Protestant denominations. It begins with Ash Wednesday and ends with Easter Sunday.

Parish Finance Council Update

2020 is already upon us, our 2019 Financial Books have just been audited with no significant issues raised.

Like all of us, balancing our budget is a primary focus for the Finance Council, and I am pleased to say that we achieved this in 2019. Whilst 2020 is looking a little less rosy, this year we will be working with the School as to options following strong student growth and the need to expand school facilities and at the same time help our community meet its financial needs.

Jesus taught that all gifts are from God. In 2020 we will be looking at Stewardship Renewal, which is a very practical concept that re-minds us to use our resources wisely and give back to God in thanksgiving for all he has given to us.

Stewardship is not a one-time act of giving, but rather a way of life that encompasses not only our weekly envelope and other planned gifts, but also the generous sharing of our time and talents with the Church and community.

Jesus calls us to be disciples; stewardship is our answer to that call – more on this after Easter

Romance and Mystery

It's easy to feel romantic in the good times when things are easy between us and life is fairly simple. The early years, especially the newlywed period, are often high points in a couple's love history when maintaining a romantic connection is uncomplicated.

It's important for couples to be proactive in fostering romance in these good times lest we fall into the trap of thinking that romance is spontaneous and effortless. Too many couples founder because we fail to make the most of the opportunity to set up romance habits that will see us through our life together.

As heart-warming as young romance is, there is something even more amazing about the romance witnessed in couples of advanced years. Like the tender attention given to a spouse who is seriously ill or the patient acceptance of a spouse with dementia.

It is in moments such as these, when one's devotion to the other surpasses expectations, that the world truly witnesses the real power of romantic love.

Rekindling the Romance

The trick to sustaining romance is to stay in touch with mystery of the other. Here are three simple habits to help the romance grow and endure.

1. Hear the Mystery

Share with each other a cherished hope you have for your future. Listen carefully to each other. Don't hurry this... take time to really let their hope be fully revealed.

2. See the Mystery

Make time to contemplate each other. Look into each other's eyes with love and acceptance. Try holding your gaze for five minutes, using only your eyes to communicate your openness.

3. Speak the Mystery

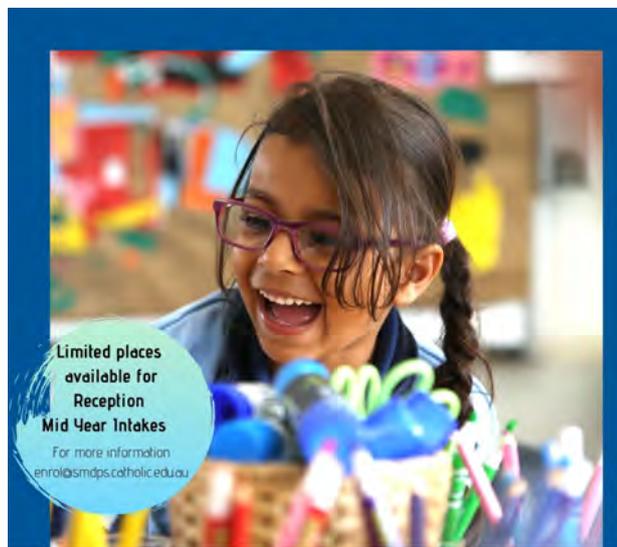

Express your wonder and gratitude for all that the other is in your life. Express it in prayer, express it to each other, express it to your family and friends. Become your lover's cheer squad and advocate.

CHRISTMAS JOY!

What a delight it was to have the children bringing the Christmas Nativity Gospel to life during our Family Vigil Mass on Christmas Eve! I am so grateful to each and every one of them for taking parts in our Tableau, and to their parents for dressing them and bringing them to the rehearsal and the Mass.

The crib was made by a parishioner and the costumes were made and donated to the church by our wonderful Craft group some time ago and are a great help so everyone can be included without too much fuss. Isn't it wonderful to see the efforts of the willing having such a happy outcome!!

I must apologise to the children pictured; I wrote their names on my Bulletin to publish with the pictures, but have lost the bulletin!

Carols in the Park

Wanted to pass on my appreciation for a well-run, well-attended Community Carols event last night. I spoke to many young families (some of whom I've met through pastoral work). It was great to see people enjoying the beautiful weather, an ideal setting and plenty of fun entertainment.

The atmosphere captured in the attached photo reminded me of the lovely visions of community peace that the prophet Isaiah shares, traditionally read in the lead up to Christmas—the arrival of the Prince of Peace. Hope you each experienced something of this peace as you celebrated Christmas with your families and worship communities.

Used Stamps wanted

Mary MacKillop Today recycles used postage stamps to: give disabled children an education in Papua New Guinea, train poor women to learn life-skills in Peru and bring vital health care to poor communities in Timor-Leste. Since 2001, we have raised over $378,000 from the sale of used postage stamps.

Cut them from the envelopes, leaving a generous margin around the edge, and drop them into the box on the bench in the foyer. Pat will forward them to the mission. I have received many notes of thanks for the stamps that we have sent.

Thank you!

We have received grateful thanks from Hutt St Centre, Moore St and Vinnies for your donations throughout Advent. Thank you all.

Sacrament Statistics

After completing the parish returns in January, here are some Sacrament statistics for 2019

- Baptisms: 30 (18 of whom were under 1 year old)
- Confirmations: 28
- Marriages: 1
- Funerals: 4

New role for Deacon Tim

Whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10.31)

Some of you may be aware that at the end of 2019, the Archdiocese of Adelaide was compelled to make budget cuts that resulted in the closure of the Office of Renewing Parishes. Since early 2016, I worked substantively in this Office supporting the renewal activities of parishes, schools and communities throughout the Archdiocese.

Obviously, I was sad to leave this role. I remain grateful for the many people that I've been privileged to work alongside, mindful that the Spirit of God leads the Church ever onwards in genuine renewing regardless of formal structures.

Around the same time, my part-time role as Coordinator of the Permanent Diaconate in Australia, funded by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference (ACBC), came to end—also due to budgetary constraints. Since being appointed by the ACBC in August 2018, I had been coordinating various support measures for approximately 200 deacons in Australia. This relatively short-lived role introduced me to many deacons, their wives and their bishops, and helped me to see at close hand how the diverse ministry of deacon is rapidly unfolding in the Australian Catholic church.

Changes of this kind are stressful because they suddenly introduce uncertainty, as many of you know all too well. However, I'm most grateful that, within a week of leaving my roles with the Archdiocese and ACBC, I was recruited to a new position within the South Australian Government—an amazingly quick turnaround, a blessing from God. When Bishop Greg O'Kelly and I recently reflected on this transition, he commented that 'the finger of God' was clearly evident. Also evident and dear to me was the prayerful support from many kind-hearted people—thank you!

My new full-time job is working for the Department of Human Services (DHS). Did you know that there are approximately 500 people living with profound disabilities who critically rely on accommodation and in-home care services provided by the Department (representing 40% of people living with profound disabilities in South Australia—the others being supported by non-government and private organisations). My role as Manager of Systems & Performance, Process Excellence is to ensure that these services are of the highest quality, are offered at sensible, cost-recovery levels and comply with National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) guidelines. Unfortunately, for many years, these invaluable services have been less than ideal in terms of quality and exorbitant in terms of costs—poor outcomes ultimately borne by people with disabilities and their families (who are already 'doing it tough').

As I begin my third month working for DHS, I'm very happy and feel well-supported by staff and managerial colleagues. Many challenges loom ahead but I feel energised to constructively and creatively face these. Believe it or not, my new job title is identical in name and general description to the job that I held in the aged care industry prior to accepting work with the Archdiocese 4 years ago.

My capacity to serve the parish and diocese as a deacon is not diminished in any way by my current work commitments. While not employed by the parish (I've never been employed by the parish), I continue to be involved (after hours and on weekends) in baptism preparation of families, baptism ceremonies, occasional weddings and funerals, scripture reflection groups, RCIA, the local ministers association (ecumenical), church cleaning, sharing homilies, and, of course, worshipping together with you during weekend Masses at St Martin de Porres church.

A deacon is one who is called to highlight the fundamental reality of all the baptised: wherever we find ourselves in our life and work—each one of has been thoughtfully placed by God to uniquely share the pure glow of Christ's ministry of total service to others for the glory of God.

Deacon Tim assisting Fr Yousef Malke (Syrian Orthodox priest) at the baptism of Chantelle Matti (Hiba & Albert's daughter) on Saturday 4 January 2020, conducted in Arabic with some English.

We thank and congratulate Albert, Hiba, Xavier & Chantelle Matti in their roles as the Holy Family during the Christmas Vigil mass at Sacred Heart College attended by over 1000 people.

Janette And Mike McPeake Celebrate 60 Years of Marriage

Janette and Mike married on 27th February 1960 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Hindmarsh. They have two children, Trevor (deceased) and Joylene (Joy Saba) and adult 5 grandchildren. Mike was a fireman on steam trains when they met, but later retrained as a motor mechanic and started his own business in the late 1960's. They settled at Ascot Park, which was at that time, a new outer suburb of Adelaide.

Teamwork has always been a focus of their marriage and once the children went to school
Janette became Office Manager and Bookkeeper.
They worked the business together for around 15 years, always closing for two weeks in September to take the family on a holiday in the caravan. Mike reinvented himself as a TAFE lecturer following the sale of the business, and Janette retired to focus on helping out with their 5 grandchildren, who all arrived within 3 ½ years. The strong relationship they still have with their grandchildren is a result of the time and commitment they had to being present in their daily lives. Travel has been a part of their retirement years, together with researching their family history.

In recent years, being part of The Cove Singers choir has brought them a new hobby and new friendships. They will celebrate their anniversary with a High Tea at Partridge House the weekend before their special day. Congratulations Janette and Mike!
